MRS. SNEED NEAR HER HUSBAND IN FORT WORTH

She is Much Interested in the Trial and Reads Papers Closely—Husband Visits Her Twice Daily.

[By Associated Press.]
Fort Worth, Texas, Dec. 2.—It became known today that the tears of Georgia Beal Sneed, aged 6, brought her mother here for the close of the Sneed trial. Mrs. Sneed arrived Friday and is under surveillance at a local hotel. The two children are with her every night.

When little Georgia Beal heard the bitter denunciation of her father, she was taken to her mother, comforted and brought back to the courtroom.
The children were not present at the opening of court this morning, but were with their mother. Mrs. Sneed shows great interest in the trial and reads the newspapers closely and asks many questions. Sneed visits her twice daily.

CONGRESS REOPENED TODAY

Washington, Dec. 2.—The final session of the Sixty-second Congress opens today, and the event is of unusual interest because of the fact that many members of the senate and house who take part in the deliberations of this session will never be seen in Washington official life again.
While others may return in the event of another political upheaval.

Following custom, both houses will adjourn soon after their convening at noon out of respect to the memory of those members who have died during the recess of congress.

Tomorrow will be devoted in both houses to reading of President Taft's annual message to congress, after which the lawmakers should be able to get down to business almost immediately, as the details of organizations and committee changes will require little time. The opinion is gaining ground that the democrats will block much important legislation as possible. In order to have it carried through by the special session which will call next April.

President
thereby gain-
party and the new president

There will be many notable changes in the personnel of the house of representatives after March 4, 1913. The democrats will have a majority of 159 over republicans and progressives
of 175. At present the democrats have a majority of 66 over the republicans in the lower branch of congress.

The most conspicuous figure that will disappear from public life in consequence of the democratic victory of last month is ex-Speaker Joseph G.
Cannon, familiarly known as "Uncle Joe," who represents the Eighteenth Illinois district. His successor will be F. J. O'Hair, Representative William McKinley, chairman of the republican congressional campaign committee and President Taft's manager in the last campaign, will also retire, as well as William J. Rodenberg of Illinois, one of Mr. Cannon's famous lieutenants; J. H. Davidson of Connecticut, Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, and Cyrus Sullivan of New Hampshire. Mr. Sullivan has been conspicuous in Washington life ever since he came to congress. He is a giant in size and never fails to attract attention.

Senator Shelby M. Cullom, who retires as the member of the upper house of the state of Illinois, has served continuously since 1883. Both of the senators from Illinois will be democrats in the next senate.

THE DIXIE.

This popular picture theatre will have for the coming week a large number of photoplays of unusual merit. For tonight the great favorite, G. M. Anderson (Broncho Billy) will be seen in a lively Western drama which is full of exciting incidents of life on the frontier. Tomorrow, the regular special feature day, will bring the Vitagraph company's great success, "The Mills of the Gods," in three acts, from George P. Dillen-back's novel of the same name. It is a great modern drama that palpitates with fire and power. It brings forth the most vigorous acting by the best artists who have ever induced a picture screen.

AT THE NEW PRINCESS.

"Leah, the Forsaken," a three-reel de luxe, is the leading attraction at the New Princess tonight. This can truly be acclaimed among the greatest picture films ever shown. It is a wonderful conception of a play that has stood forth as a masterpiece for decades. It is produced with a majesty and sublimity that eclipse any production ever made. All who see "Leah, the Forsaken," at the New Princess tonight need not hesitate to state that they have seen the best ever offered in motion pictures.
